

Student Name
Ms. Haywood
English 8
March 2016

Do Now: Review for Pronoun Case Quiz

Fill in the missing parts of the tables below.

PERSONAL PRONOUNS
NOMINATIVE	OBJECTIVE	POSSESSIVE
SINGULAR
(5)  ____, you ____, ____, it	(5)  me you him, ____, it	(8)  my, ____ your, ____ ____, her, ____, its
PLURAL
(3)  we ____ ____	(3)  ____ you ____	(6)  our, ____ ____, yours their, ____

Student Name
Ms. Haywood
English 8
March 2016

Circle the CORRECT pronoun choice in the sentences below:

1. He/Him went to the bottom of the ocean.
2. Everyone except for him and I/me left the party early.
3. The only students to understand the math problem were John and they/them.
4. After the replay of the game, the referee said that the winners were we/us.
5. Between you and I/me, the Knicks basketball team is my favorite.
6. Will you give her and I/me your phone number in case we get lost?
7. Ms. Chall is awesome; one of the hardest working teachers in the 8th grade is she/her.
8. The photographers waited for we/us at the front door of the Opera House.
9. Did you warn him or I/me about your late submission of the assignment?
10. Wasn't it he/him who reported his wallet as stolen?

Fill in the correct POSSESSIVE CASE pronoun for the sentences below. In some cases, you MUST PAY attention to the gender of the subject or antecedent of the sentences.

1. Did Sofia try on _____ uniform for the track team?
2. Where are _____ books? I thought they left them in the English classroom.
3. Did _____ lacrosse coach offer any helpful suggestions when you met with her?
4. My brother asked my mother to leave her tools in the garage; he could see that _____ were too dirty to bring in the house.
5. My cousins live in Takoma Park and _____ neighborhood restaurants are excellent.